11. It was also reported that an anonymous donor had left a letter at the "Express" office enclosing a ten shilling note as a slight recognition of the extra work put in by the ladies in preparing the Old Drill Hall for the last concert, but thanks were also due to the men who had also done their share of work.